

Alphabetical Order

Circle the line from each group that is in alphabetical order.

- A. drop, hop, mop
- B. sat, hat, cat
- C. pan, ran, man

- A. broom, cow, den
- B. leg, five, nest
- C. hug, bug, mug

- A. above, show, below
- B. tame, pool, huge
- C. brown, clown, dog

- A. block, rock, clock
- B. big, dig, pig
- C. map, cap, tap

- A. flow, go, way
- B. foot, bend, ice
- C. luck, nut, fox

- A. was, how, awe
- B. coat, dry, heat
- C. hug, bug, rug

Antonyms

Antonyms are words that are opposites.
Circle the antonyms in each sentence.

Walter is usually loud, but in the library he is quiet.

Boots' soup is hot and his milk is cold.

The book is too big for Hoots' small backpack.

Walter lives near Boots but far from Hoots.

Please close the open window.

The dog house is over the grass and under the tree.

-ACK Words

Write in the missing letters from the choices given to complete the -ack words so the sentences below make sense.

Boots' soccer ball is white and ____ack.

p b bl

Walter had an itch on his ____ack.

sn b l

Hoots likes to have carrots for a ____ack.

sn p qu

Walter's train runs on a ____ack.

tr sn qu

When Hoots pretends to be a duck she says, " ____ack".

sn b qu

Boots is going on a trip and needs to ____ack his suitcase.

b p t

